Dear Mr. and Mrs. Baucom:

The above-referenced matter required emergency action to protect the public health, safety and/or environment with response from local fire departments and/or the Emergency Management Agency of Fairfield County. Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 3745.13, parties responsible for an unauthorized release of hazardous materials are liable to the countywide emergency management agency for "necessary and reasonable, additional or extraordinary costs it incurs in investigating, mitigating, minimizing, removing, or abating the spill, release, or discharge."

Costs were incurred by the following response agency. A copy of their bill is attached.

Fairfield County Special Operations Team	700.00
15% Administrative & Response Fee for Fairfield County EMA	105.00
Total Cost	$805.00

Please submit payment of $805.00 to the Emergency Management Agency of Fairfield County, P.O. Box 626, Lancaster, OH 43130-0626. If these costs are not paid within thirty days, I will submit an itemized statement of total costs to the Fairfield County Ohio Prosecuting Attorney and request that counsel bring a civil action for recovery of these costs, as outlined in section 3745.13.

Sincerely,

Daniel C. Bolger, Director
